

Dear friends and Madness lovers,

The time has come to celebrate the first anniversary of Madness CR3W !

We are preparing a very special treat for you, after a long year of madness, it's time to step it up again ! Exactly a year ago our beloved artist Mason has given us a night of amazing music and mayhem. We have invited him again... but this time he will be playing an all night long set for us !!

This will be an exclusive event so make sure that you press attend on the event so you will be on our list !

For now we keep the location a secret, all you have to know that we are working on a very special place to make it happen !!

12€ at the door (wardrobe included) no credit card there

Looking forward to having you there!!
